

I support the Indiana no call law. You cannot believe the relief this provides from these home invasive telephone calls. The calls are disruptive to normal living and the persuit of happiness which is one of the corner stones of the Constitution of the United States. Thank you.